

Book we are reading:

Highlights:

The children have very much enjoyed investigating the crime scene that was in our sports hall relating to our English book. We have been detectives to solve the crime and looking at rewriting the story with new endings.

Year 1 Angelfish CLASS MESSAGE

Date: Monday 16th December

How you can help at home:

Listen to your child read their phonics book with you.

Log on to EdShed and practice the spellings ready for the spelling test every Friday. These are also found in the homework books.

A message from my teacher:

Well done for all your hard work this term Angelfish. You have been very Ambitious and Resilient with all your learning. I am very impressed with how well you have been practising the songs for our concert and the effort you have put into this. Have a fantastic Christmas! See you in the new year!
