Highlights:

In English we have been exploring the text The Night Pirates. The children have created a newspaper article about the events that have happened in the story. They have thoroughly enjoyed becoming reporters. In PSHE the children have been learning about money and the different ways in which we can keep it safe. We have thought about the different ways in which money is spent and how people will have different priorities when spending. Lastly, in PE the children have been taking part in athletics. They have practised skills such as running, jumping and throwing.

A message from my teacher:

It has been a fantastic and quick term. The children have shown to be resilient, curious and ambitious learners.

They showed bounds of resilience on our local trip to Jeskyns. Enjoying the long walk and being incredibly curious about the
